

Registration

This seminar will be held via ZOOM only.
Please register by email to hkits@hku.hk before noon on 26th May 2021.

Transportation Responses to the COVID-19:

a dialogue between the East and the West

Speakers

Professor Patricia Mokhtarian
Georgia Institute of Technology, U.S.A.

Patricia Mokhtarian is the Susan and Christopher Pappas Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology, specializing in the study of travel behavior for 40+ years. She is a past Chair of the International Association for Travel Behaviour Research, and a National Associate of the US National Academies.

Date:
26th May 2021 (Wednesday)

Time:
8:00 – 9:30 pm (HKT) /
12:00 – 1:30 pm (GMT) /
8:00 – 9:30 am (EDT)

Organiser:
THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
INSTITUTE OF TRANSPORT STUDIES
交通運輸研究所
Transport Policy Committee

Professor Sugie Lee
Hanyang University, South Korea

Dr. Sugie Lee is a professor at the Department of Urban Planning & Engineering at Hanyang University in Seoul, Korea. He holds a Ph.D. in City and Regional Planning from the Georgia Institute of Technology. His research interests include urban form, walkability, urban design, smart mobility, and spatial analysis of urban big data.

Moderators:

Dr. Jiangping Zhou
Chairperson of Transport Policy Committee

Dr. Yongsung Lee
Deputy Chairperson of Transport Policy Committee